UNCLE SAM'S TEAM APPEARS INVINCIBLE

Yankees Should Sweep Boards in Interallied Games in Pershing Stadium.

WELL BALANCED CREW

Have No Outstanding Weakness in Any Event on Either Track or Field.

By GEORGE B. UNDERWOOD.

Just as Uncle Sam swept the boards at the Olympic games at Athens in 1906 and successfully defended his title of world's undefeated and undisputed athletic champion in the Olympic meet at Paris in 1900, St. Louis in 1904, Athens in 1906, London in 1908 and Stockholm in 1912, so is the old gentleman with the goatee, star spangled vest and striped pants expected to "clean up" in the big interallied athletic meet in the Pershing Stadium at Jolvilleville-Pont, near Paris, next month.

America is not throwing its full strength into the fray, for only the athletes from the land branch of the country's greatest athletic sport, the navy blue. But the team that will be the Old Glory emblem in the great contest, at Jolvilleville-Pont looks strong enough to outclass the representatives of Great Britain, France, Belgium, Italy and the other allied nations.

The Yankees appear invincible in the field events and in the track events up to 1,500 meters. It looks as if Uncle Sam will make a clean sweep in the 100 and 200 meter dashes, 110 and 200 yard hurdles, the running high jump and broad jump. American athletes are the winners in the 400 meter run, the 800 meter run, running high jump, pole vault, standing broad jump, standing high jump, discus throw, shot put, hammer throw, javelin throw, pole vault and pentathlon. The 1,500 meter run, cross-country and modified marathon appear to be the only events in which the British, French or Belgian athletes may have a chance. Uncle Sam out of place, but it would not be at all surprising to see an American flash to the fore in these contests also.

Eight Have Done "Evans."

Uncle Sam has eight men in the 100 meter dash who have done as well or better for 190 yards—Butler of Duquesne, Kelly of Holy Cross and the New York A. C. Tscherner and Moore of Harvard. The French, Belgian and British athletes are expected to be the only ones who can question his supremacy as Americans—Joe Higgins, Larry Scudder, the Campbell brothers and H. T. Torkelson.

Pat Taylor, world's record holder for both standing high and standing broad jump, looks invincible in both of those events, as also does Pat Ryan in the hammer throw.

It is not expected any foreign vaulters will keep Harwood, Floyd, Templeton or Johnson from capturing first place for Uncle Sam in the pole vault, or prevent Broder, Higgins, Livermore or King from taking the javelin throw, or Byrd, Duncan, Sutherland or Massapout from landing first place in the discus throw. Were the Swedish or Finnish javelin and discus throwers entered there would be another story. It was the Finns and Swedes who defeated the Americans in the Berlin and Stockholm competitions at the Stockholm Olympiad.

America would feel safer in the shot put if good old Pat McDonald were eligible, but Uncle Sam will have some other individuals to rely on in that event. There will figure pretty strongly in the shot put anyway. America has not any great strength in the 1,500 meter run, cross-country, modified marathon, but is pretty certain of figuring in the points at that. Stout, Mehan, Hamman, Kennedy, Giannakopoulos and Pat Ryan may come through with unman in the pentathlon.

Good Enough to Win.

While Le Gendre, Fred Kelly, Butler, Haddock, Wild and Hammond are not second Martin Sheridans or Jim Thorpes in versatility, they are strong enough to make it mighty interesting for the British, French and Belgian all around men in the pentathlon.

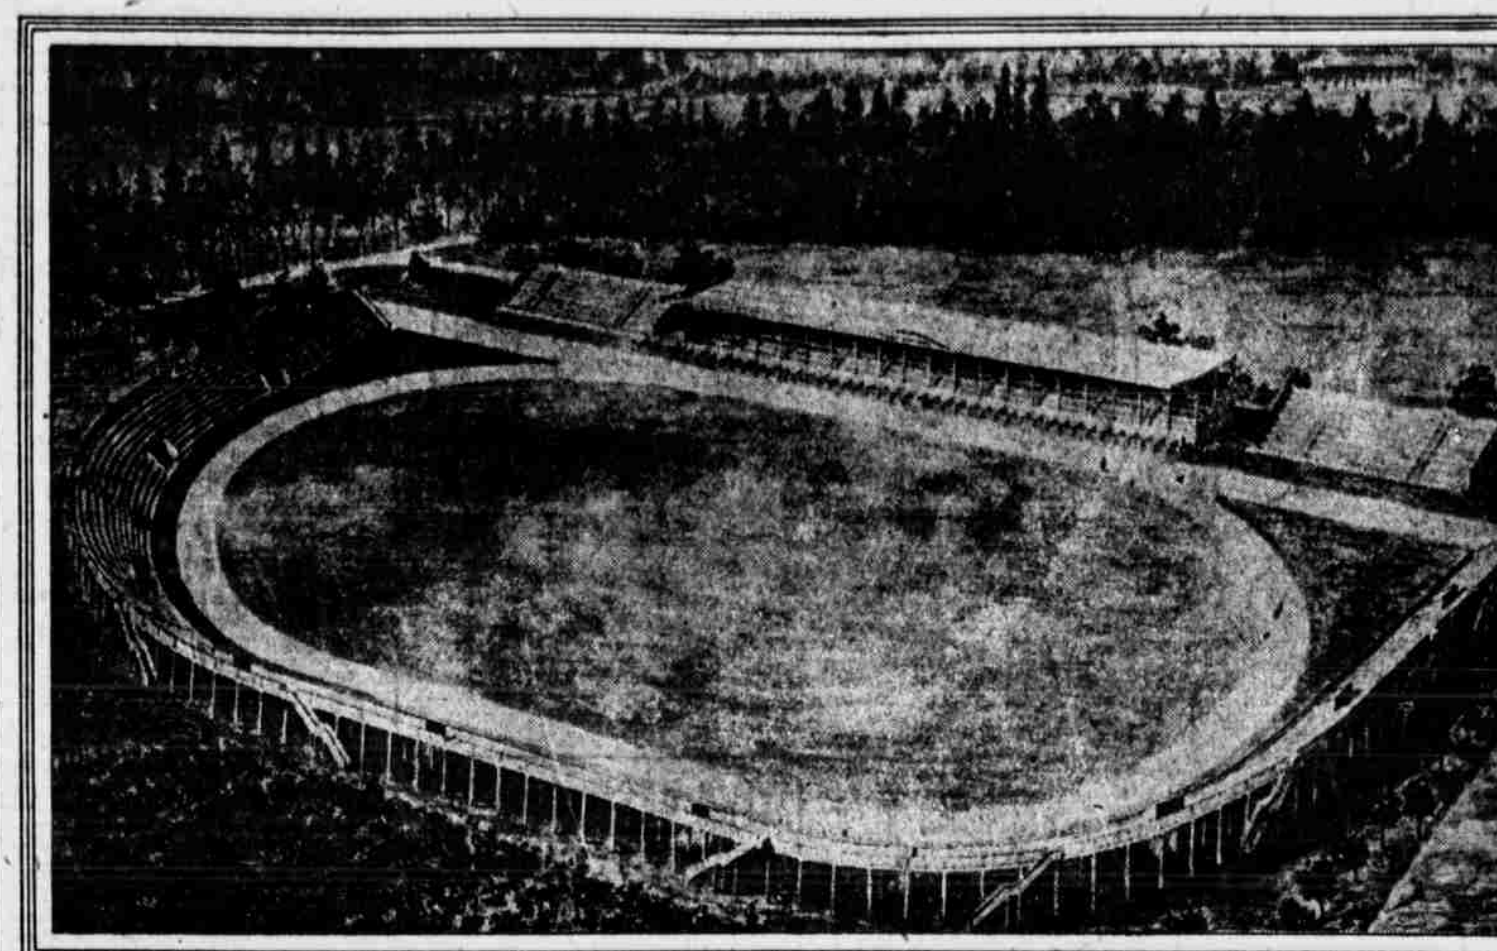

Norman Ross will give the Europeans something to talk about in the swimming events. Ross undoubtedly will be the individual of the hour in the swimming. The other American swimmers, Biddell, Allen, Bierbach, Montgomery, Hinks and James will furnish strong competition for their British, French and Belgian rivals.

America apparently has not any tremendous strength in the wrestling and boxing events. For some reason or other many of the American wrestlers declined to return to France. There are several good mat and ring men among the Yankee soldiers still in France, however. America is likely to make a strong showing in the ring, but probably will not accomplish anything out of the ordinary on the mat.

Lafayette Captain.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., June 7.—Wayne S. McConnell, a junior at Purdue, was elected captain of the 1920 baseball team. He had been a member of the team for two years, holding the third sack. He is a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity, and lives in Lafayette.

The Pershing Stadium Where Interallied Athletic Meet Will Be Staged.

Peace hath her victories no less renowned than war. Accompanying is the architect's drawing of the great Pershing Stadium at Jolvilleville-Pont, near Paris, where the interallied athletic meet will be staged. The stadium is a masterpiece of architecture, with a high, arched roof and a grand facade. It is surrounded by a low wall and some trees in the foreground.

WOMEN READY FOR GOLF TITLE DUREN

More Than Four Score Will Compete in Metropolitan Championship.

PLAY BEGINS TO-MORROW

The field includes all of the well known women players of the district. The very impressive showing made by the New York team in cleaning up decisively with Boston and Philadelphia in the annual Graceland cup competition during the past week has stimulated interest in the coming event, and a series of hectic struggles are expected to mark the progress of matches leading to the final round for the metropolitan title.

The tournament will cover a stretch of five days starting to-morrow and continuing through Friday. The qualifying round will be played to-morrow, to be followed by a special competition in approaching and putting. On each succeeding day the play will be made up of a special event, to be held, likewise a special event. Tuesday afternoon will be held a handicap match against bogey. On Wednesday the play will be made up of a special event, to be held, likewise a special event. Thursday and a handicap medal round will be played Friday, all of these in addition to the daily round tournament match play.
